
Cyber Essentials Sales Consultant

We are looking for an experienced Cyber Essentials Sales Consultant to join our cyber security company.

This is a remote position and the successful candidate will be home based. However, there will be the option to work flexibly from one of our local hubs. Ad-hoc travel to offices within the group and other locations may be required on occasion.

“a great place to work, a great place to be a customer”

The Role:

Our CSaaS portal delivers an innovative web app for organisations to manage their cyber security posture and understand their cyber risks giving them a competitive advantage. You will have the opportunity to sell a truly unique technology within an unsaturated market and thriving industry.

With a growing client base, we now have a need for a talented individual to join the sales team. This is a remote role working as part of a small team, you will have current experience in sales, in either a direct or channel capacity. Additionally, experience of cyber security would prove useful, but is by no means a prerequisite. This is a great opportunity for someone wanting to further their sales career in a highly visible sales role.

We are looking for an articulate, inquisitive, and determined individual to open doors and to promote us in the market by building strong and lasting relationships with clients and partners.

The Candidate:

- Find, cultivate and close deals!
- You will identify new business opportunities via phone-based prospecting, as well as LinkedIn/Email
- Research strategic accounts and establish relationships with influencers
- Build rapport, establish service confidence, overcome objections and influence senior decision makers
- Engage with Cyberlab technical experts to provide prospects with an accurate and compelling story on our products and services strengths and capabilities
- Collaborate with the wider CyberLab teams to discover and help win cross sales opportunities.
- Accurately forecast monthly and quarterly pipelines and meet/exceed sales targets.

Skills & Experience

- Minimum of 3 years' experience in either direct sales or channel sales.
- Career to date showing progression and success in a sales role.
- Proficiency with high volume prospecting and creating new business.
- Excellent interpersonal and client management skills.
- Strong written and proposal development skills.
- Focus and time management skills to work remotely

Why join CyberLab?

Diversity, equality, and inclusion is at the heart of our culture and we are passionate about our One Team spirit.

Our continued focus on growth creates opportunity for everyone to progress their career, to develop knowledge and skills, to gain reward and recognition and to maximise their potential. The growth and success of our people ensures the growth and success of our business.

We believe that "if you're not growing, we're not growing".
